

Our special guest is recognised internationally as Australia's favourite magician.

He's appeared on over one hundred TV shows and recently headlined at Hollywood's famous Magic Castle.

He's the first Australian ever to win twice at the World Championship of Magic.

And he's just entered the Guinness Book of World Records for performing the longest non-stop magic show in history... 85 hours

Tonight, he's going to attempt to break his own record

Please welcome, TIM ELLIS
